

Praise be to God

We are giving a big SHOUT OUT to our new PARTNERS this month!!

Ben Beavers graciously partnered with LoHM! Recently, Randy Langemeier & his wife also became partners. They have a non-profit, and Randy supplied our board with some fresh ideas to help grow our LoHM ministry.

We want to say THANK YOU to ALL of our LoHM partners, as you each join us in providing women HOPE in the One True God, that they can be set FREE in Christ Jesus. He is the One who gives them HOPE for their future, no matter what they have done nor how long they are in prison.

THANK YOU for partnering with LoHM!

Freedom

He whom the Lord sets free is Free indeed

It is for freedom that Christ has set us free.

Galatians 5:1

A Letter from Ms A : "Hello, how are you doing? I am doing the best I can considering I am going through some soul-searching and people want to 'push' me. There has been some issues going on and my daily devotional reading has been about the things I am going thru. I try to put my radio on when I write you.

So, my reading the past day...

"It's easy to give everything to God when you have nothing. Recovery gives you an opportunity to leave the distractions and chaos of the outside world and work to get your insight world put right when your heart is in the right place you will see God working on the outside. Your first serious look at yourself in the mirror can be frightening. You might be full of fear, anger, resentment, unforgiveness, or lacking self-worth. Don't get upset at the mirror. You're OK. Admitting you are poor in spirit is a huge step forward. Submission and obedience are key to recovery. If you are still calling the shots, you'll find yourself in big trouble."

"Although you've made mistakes, God says you're not a mistake. The Father loved you so much that He gave His Son to die for you. Your new life deserves quick action. It's critical to respond properly when God reveals exactly what He desires from you. Don't hesitate."

Lord, I pray for character that will sustain my recovery. I am in a room with two messy females that be getting loud with me... There is no reason to be yelling and making an issue and getting police involved and getting all up in my face threatening to hit me. They just need attention, and they say people who want attention will get it either way "good or bad! "

I want to say thank you and not giving up and for taking out time in your days to write to me and make me smile. And for helping me to finally open up and stop letting fear, trust issues and faith issues, keep me from believing and giving it all to God. You are an amazing woman, and I am very thankful that God sent you my way. I am thankful and blessed to get you as a friend... Thank you. Be blessed. Ms A

Letters like Ms A's are God's way to encourage writers and partners alike. We wish more letters would be like hers. However, we know with each letter we write God is at work in ways we do not yet see. We hold on to God's call: "Faithful is He who calls you to bring it to pass." 1 Thessalonians 5:24

Continue to remember those in prison,
as if you were together with them in prison,
and those who are mistreated,
as if you yourselves were suffering. Heb 13:3 NIV
